Terms and Conditions

- Enrolment of a prospective student including the placement of the student into a particular year group is subject to The British School Quito admissions and entry policies and all other policies and procedures (including those relating to discipline and curriculum).
- The offer of enrolment or enrolment itself can be withdrawn, suspended or made subject to new terms and conditions should the school determine that there has been any breach of the school's policies or procedures, terms and conditions. In cases where there is any misrepresentation or inadequate disclosure about the prospective student. If the school determines at any time that it cannot reasonably meet the child's needs, this may include without limitation, situations where the school was unable to interview the prospective student before offering a place.
- If a parent/guardian desires to withdraw a child from school, that parent/guardian shall give 30 days written withdrawal notice to the school. If a written withdrawal notice is delivered to the school during holiday periods, it will be deemed received by the school on the first day in session.
- The school may at any time terminate this agreement and the prospective student enrolment may be withdrawn or suspended or made subject to new terms and conditions with 30 days written notice or less where the school has good reason to enforce permanent exclusion. The school shall not take such action without good cause and where possible full consultation with the parent/guardian of the student. Exclusions shall be carried out according to school policy and Ministry of Education regulations. Parents/guardians have the right to appeal any such decision.
- If one parent/guardian consents to or approves a course of action, both parents/guardians will be deemed to have given such consent or approval.
Where the need arises, the school may authorize any action deemed necessary, that may include actions such as transfer of the student to a hospital. All expenses thereby incurred are the parent's/guardian's responsibility. The school will endeavor to contact one or both parents/guardians in the above circumstances but where neither one can be contacted or if the school deems that the circumstances are of an emergency, the school is hereby authorized to take such action as necessary in the best interest of the student and the school.

Disclosure

Please note that it is important to declare in writing all medical, behavioural, emotional and other issues that might affect your child's life at the school. In the case of a child with special educational needs, the school shall have the right to assess at any time whether it can provide or continue to provide adequate educational care and provision. If your child has previously been asked to leave another school, this information must be provided. Failure to give full and frank disclosure in writing at any time during the application process shall entitle the school to withdraw or suspend the offer of enrolment or to make the offer or enrolment itself subject to new terms and conditions with immediate effect. These Terms and Conditions are subject to amendment by the school and shall take effect within 30 days from the date written notice is given to a parent/guardian whether by printed copy, email, website notification or otherwise.
